

United States Mint Announces 2014 Presidential $1 Coin Designs

November 26, 2013

WASHINGTON — The United States Mint today released the designs that will appear on the obverse (heads sides) of the 2014 Presidential $1 Coins. The coins honor former Presidents Warren G. Harding, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, and Franklin D. Roosevelt. Line art of the new designs is available at </news/image-library/news-image-gallery>.

The following talented pool of United States Mint Sculptor–Engravers designed and executed the coins' obverse designs:

- Warren G. Harding Presidential $1 Coin – United States Mint Sculptor–Engraver Michael Gaudioso, designer and engraver
- Calvin Coolidge Presidential $1 Coin – United States Mint Sculptor–Engraver Phebe Hemphill, designer and engraver
- Herbert Hoover Presidential $1 Coin – United States Mint Sculptor–Engraver Phebe Hemphill, designer and engraver
- Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential $1 Coin – United States Mint Sculptor–Engraver Joseph Menna, designer and engraver Inscriptions on the obverse of each coin in the Presidential $1 Coin Program include the President's name, term in office, the order in which he served, and IN GOD WE TRUST.

The reverse (tails side) of all coins in the Presidential $1 Coin Program features a rendition of the Statue of Liberty, designed and executed by United States Mint Sculptor–Engraver Don Everhart.

Inscriptions on the reverse are $1 and UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. The year of minting or issuance, the mint mark, and E PLURIBUS UNUM are incused on the edge of the coins. The coins will be released at approximately three-month intervals throughout the year beginning in February.

The United States Mint administers the Presidential $1 Coin Program in accordance with Public Law 109–145. Although production of circulating Presidential $1 Coins was suspended in 2011, collectible versions will continue to be available through select United States Mint offerings.
